

TALES FROM THE COLLECTION: EVERYTHING HAS A STORY

SUNDAY, JUNE 11 @ 2 PM

INCLUDED WITH MUSEUM ADMISSION

ALBANY INSTITUTE OF HISTORY & ART

125 Washington Ave, Albany, NY

Join us for an afternoon of storytelling. This program, organized by Claire Nolan of Story Circle at Proctors, features four local storytellers: Kate Dudding, Mary Murphy, Karen Pillsworth, and Beverly Schwartz.

Each storyteller selected an artifact from the Albany Institute of History & Art's collection to inspire their writing process, ultimately creating stories that range from fairy tales and folklore to personal stories. This afternoon storytelling will be the debut showcase for these stories, presented in our Key Cultural Center with an image of the collection item that inspired each tale.

This event welcomes story lovers of all ages! See you at the museum.
